CREAM OF NEWS COMPILED AND COLLECTED FROM ALL SOURCES

Perhaps Big Bill couldn't read his title clear.

The early bud gets caught by the future worm.

It is now up to the man from Missouri to show us.

Unless objections are raised, Spring may now proceed.

To settle a bet, we would like to inspect the pedometer Bill Reed used while he was running.

The man you now see in the lime-light is Speaker Beauchamp Clark, formerly known as Champ.

If reports are true Postmaster General Hitchcock is not giving all of his attention to mail matters.

We congratulate Assistant Secretary of State Robert A. Cook on giving up a job to accept a position.

What a pity Senator Jimmy O'Gorman's election couldn't have taken place on the seventeenth of March.

Was Bill Reed a quitter or did he conclude that it was no use to put up good money on another man's trick?

The Iowa Legislature will adjourn April 12 and indications are that the senatorial deadlock will continue to the end of the session.

O'James a big man in the House, O'Gorman filling Depew's seat in the senate and now comes O'Rear running for Governor in Kentucky.

The Illinois Central Railroad Co., has settled with its 1,300 dissatisfied telegraph operators by giving them an 8 per cent. increase effective March 1.

George Ade, the humorist, is serving as a jurymen at his home at Kentland, Ind., at $2 a day. He has promised to devote his jury fees to the local baseball club.

A military tribunal in Hayti has condemned 22 men to death charged with complicity in the recent rebellion. Foreign consuls are protesting against their execution.

Senator-elect O'Gorman, of New York, is the father of ten children. No wonder Teddy's namesake, Senator F. D. Roosevelt, the Democratic insurgent leader, accepted him as a dark horse compromise.

Mayor S. C. Sigler, the blacksmith mayor of Hackettstown, N. J., committed suicide because the city council would not pass ordinances he had pledged himself in his campaign to enact. He hanged himself in his shop.

The Loetschberg tunnel, nine miles long is nearing completion under the Bernese Alps, at a cost of $20,000,000. It connects the Simplon tunnel with the railways to France, shortening the distance to Calais 80 miles.

The United States Supreme Court will this week pass upon the question of whether a woman ceases to be a dead husband's widow when she marries another man. The question was raised in a damage suit from Pennsylvania.

In spite of the o'backing and O'Rearing in the state committee, "Broncho" Franks was not unhorsed in selecting a place for the convention. Keep your eye on the weather-Cox when the Broncho mounts the stump.

Miss Mamie Blanka, a model in the Chicago Art Institute, refused to pose before a class with a negro member and gave up her position rather than change her decision. Two of her friends among the students who entered a protest were ejected by policemen called in.

The census in England was taken between noon Sunday and noon yesterday by 40,000 enumerators and the results will be given out by June 1. Director Durand should take a course of instruction in the English Census Department before he tries to take another census for Uncle Sam. We still know very little about the census taken a year ago.

The Panama libel cases against the editors of the New York World and the Indianapolis News have been thrown out of court. They were indicted for publishing that the Panama Canal syndicate that bought out the French owners made $40,000,000 in transferring the canal to the Government. Taft, Roosevelt and others were alleged to have been libeled, but the indictment wouldn't stand.

Four masked men went to the home of A. T. Rogers, Jr., at East Las Vegas, N. M., and kidnaped his two-year-old son from his mother's arms, after intimidating the child's uncle with a revolver. A written demand for a $12,000 ransom was made under threat to kill the child if the affair was mentioned. The ransom was paid the next night and the child recovered seven miles from his home, sleeping by the roadside. At last accounts a posse was on a hot trail.

CROPS FOR 1911

Farmers Consult the Hindu Seer Concerning Them.

Several prominent South Christian farmers were among the visitors at the office of the Hindu Seer, the famous Oriental Healer who has recently established himself in this city, and with one accord they are marveling at the wonderful powers he possesses.

Each consultation is sacredly confidential and satisfactory results are always guaranteed.

A member of the financial staff of the "Beverly" Co. was told the exact number of tickets that would be sold at the performance Thursday night.

The famous Hindu's rooms were closed Sunday, as they will be every Sunday. It will more than repay anyone who consults the great scientist.

Magazines by Freight.

Washington, D. C., April 1.—Magazines and other bulky periodicals after July 1 next will be transported by the Postoffice Department in carloads as fast freight.

Postmaster General Hitchcock is developing as rapidly as possible plans which he decided upon last December to utilize fast freight in the transportation of magazines when practicable, and in instances where a saving to the Government in transportation charges may be effected.

Distributing terminals have been established in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis, Omaha, St. Paul and Cincinnati. Through matter that can be handled in carload lots will be sent through the weighing section by freight, and such additional distribution as is necessary before the matter is delivered to other railroad postoffice lines will be done in the terminals.

Little Mary.

Mary had a little jam,
She smeared some on her nose;
When Mary's ma came home at night—
Well, what do you suppose?
